AFTERNOON AT THE MUSEUM

New York's movers and shakers are embracing a new trend this summer, outdoor afternoon clubbing at museums. Spearheading the concept is Warm Up, which combines beatboxing talent with vintage art and architecture in the courtyard of the PS1 temporary Art Center, an extension of MOMA (www.ps1.org). Or on the Upper East Side, check out the swanky Hewitt Design Museum Design + DJs + Dancing, a beautiful sunset chill-out session featuring quirky design memorabilia and eclectic music from
